

Processing, Personal Data and Data Subjects

Processing Application	Agenda Diary Management System for Registrars
Subject matter of the processing	Online booking system for the recording of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Citizenship appointments. As well as marriage, civil partnership and naming ceremonies.
Duration of the processing	Data is retained for the fulfilment of the appointment. Appointment and ceremony bookings are made in advance and are finished after the booking has been fulfilled. After which, data is used for statistical purposes and to refer back to if required.
Nature and purposes of the processing	The nature of the processing is collection of the data through online forms completed by customers (members of the public), forms completed by call centre operatives under the customers instruction or by a member of the clients service staff under the customer's instruction. The purpose of the processing is to enable the service to schedule the appropriate appointment or ceremony.
Type of Personal Data	Names, dates of birth, dates of death, dates of ceremonies, addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, marital status, disabilities, nationality, informants names.
Categories of Data Subject	Members of the public.
Plan for return once processing is complete	Data archival and removal is the responsibility of the data controller (the client). When the contract is complete, current data is returned to the client as csv files.